

Greg Landwehr, SIOR, MICP

Partner / Senior Commercial
Real Estate Advisor
NAI Pfefferle
d 920.560.5037
f 920.968.4300
c 920.740.5464
gregl@naipfefferle.com

Career Summary

Greg Landwehr serves as a partner/senior commercial real estate advisor at NAI Pfefferle. He was named a partner in the firm in 2020. Mr. Landwehr previously worked as a commercial property inspector for Strategic Asset Services of Rancho Santa Margarita, California and performed lender inspections of properties throughout Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. He became a commercial real estate professional in 2006, after obtaining his Wisconsin real estate broker's license. Prior to that, he founded an American Business Forms franchise in Appleton, which ultimately grew into a successful corporation, PrintX Printing Solutions. He began his professional career as an account executive for Moore Business Forms in Green Bay.

Education

- Master of Arts degree from Truman State University
- Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh

Professional Achievements & Affiliations

- First Place, Broker of the Year, NAI Pfefferle, 2017
- Broker of the Quarter (3rd Quarter), NAI Pfefferle, 2018
- Broker of the Quarter (2nd and 4th Quarters), NAI Pfefferle, 2017
- CoStar Power Broker Award, 2019, 2018
- National Association of Realtors (NAR)
- Commercial Association of Realtors (CARW)
- Wisconsin Realtors Association (WRA)
- Inspector certification for Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac multifamily properties, Mortgage Bankers Association
- Licensed real estate salesperson and broker, state of Wisconsin
- Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR)
- Broker Price Opinion Resource (BPOR) certification
- Masters in Commercial Property (MICP) designation

Personal Affiliations

- Mission pilot, Brown County Civil Air Patrol
- Board Member, Lawrence Court Condominiums, Appleton
- Friendship Family Host, Lawrence University