Career Summary

Sarah Pahl joined the NAI Pfefferle Green Bay team in November of 2018. She splits her time between NAI Pfefferle, assisting brokers in the office, and Pfefferle Management, assisting in the management of the Green Bay property portfolio. On the brokerage side, some of Sarah's responsibilities include preparing property contracts, designing profile sheets and marketing available properties. Some of her tasks for Pfefferle Management include working on tenant maintenance requests and working alongside the technicians and property manager in areas where needed to ensure the property is serviced in a timely fashion.

Previously Ms. Pahl worked for the YWCA Greater Green Bay as an executive administrative assistant. There she helped host and plan events and worked along side the CEO on multiple community relations projects. Prior to this position, Ms. Pahl worked in Texas as a living editor in Fort Hood's Army public affairs office and headquarters; III Corps and Fort Hood. In this position, she published articles in their weekly newspaper and shot photography; everything from change of command ceremonies to the Alamo in San Antonio.

Education

- Communication-Public Relations degree from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, double minors in history and political science.
