Career Summary

Brooke Chartier joined the NAI Pfefferle Green Bay team in August of 2007. She splits her time equally between NAI Pfefferle, assisting brokers in the office, and Pfefferle Management, assisting in the management of the Green Bay property portfolio.

Previously Ms. Chartier worked for six years as an administrative assistant for a development, restoration and construction firm in Green Bay. There she acted as a "jack of all trades" assisting with project coordination and property management in addition to her regular administrative duties in the office. Prior to that, she worked in various positions ranging from an administrative assistant to a homeowner's association manager for property management company in Las Vegas, NV for nearly five years.
