

Manny Vasquez

Vice President - Business Development

NAI Pfefferle

d 920.560.5075

f 920.968.4300

c 920.858.1075

mannyv@naipfefferle.com

Career Summary

Manny Vasquez, vice president of business development for NAI Pfefferle, is responsible for developing business opportunities in the company's consulting, brokerage and property management segments throughout the state of Wisconsin. He works in collaboration with NAI Pfefferle's commercial real estate team, as well as its affiliate company, Pfefferle Management, to offer a holistic platform of services to existing and future clients of the company.

Prior to joining NAI Pfefferle, Mr. Vasquez was with the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce and served as the vice president of the Fox Cities Regional Partnership (FCRP), a public-private economic development entity that supports business development in Wisconsin's Fox Cities region. Prior to becoming vice president, he served as FCRP's director of existing industry services. Mr. Vasquez also served in the roles of regional director for U.S. Senator Ron Johnson (R-WI); caseworker and staff assistant for U.S. Senator Russ Feingold (D-WI); and management assistant for the city of Oshkosh; among others.

Education

- Master's degree in public administration from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh
- Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and international affairs from Marquette University

Achievements

- Stephen Hintz MPA Award, University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, 2014
- Rising Star Award, The Post Crescent

Affiliations

- Board of directors and member, Wisconsin Economic Development Association (WEDA)
- Board of directors, University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh Alumni Association
- Corporate board of directors, YMCA of the Fox Cities
- Steering committee, Northeast Wisconsin International Business Network
- Steering committee, Leadership Fox Cities, graduate 2014-2015
- Member, New North Marketing and Branding Committee