

NAI Pfefferle

Dane Checolinski

“Contact me to learn how I can help you with your commercial real estate needs.”

Dane Checolinski serves as a commercial real estate advisor at NAI Pfefferle along the Lakeshore (Sheboygan and Manitowoc areas). Mr. Checolinski is a passionate, genuine individual who helps those seeking to buy, sell or lease commercial properties and operating businesses. His passion lies in educating clients on opportunities as much as guiding them through the real estate transaction process.

With eleven years in local economic and community development, Mr. Checolinski has expertise in navigating small business finance and government incentives. During his time at the Sheboygan County Economic Development Corporation he has aided successful real estate investment and development of manufacturing, warehousing, retail, office, hospitality, multi-family, condominiums and nonprofits.
